

The New Zealand Poetry Society International Poetry Competition

Open and Open Junior Guidelines

Entries

- The New Zealand Poetry Society Competition is open to international entries.
- The Open section is for adults 18 years and over.
- The Open Junior section is for those who are 17 years old or younger on 31 May.
- Poems may be on any theme.
- Poems should be previously unpublished, and not submitted or accepted for future publication. We classify poems appearing in online or print magazines/journals, in or out of New Zealand, as previously published. We also classify poems that have appeared on a public website or blog of anyone other than the author as previously published.
- The author's name must be recorded only on the entry form. This is to ensure that the entries are judged blind. Submissions with any other form of identification on the poems themselves will be disqualified and entry fees will not be returned.
- Entries must be typed.
- Poems should be in English. Entries that are primarily in English and incorporate other languages are fine. But please provide a translation on a separate, following page.
- When submitting multiple poems, each poem should start on a new page.
- The number of entries is unlimited, but the organisers reserve the right to limit the number selected for publication by one author.
- Entries will not be kept, so please keep a copy for yourself.
- Entry constitutes acceptance of all terms and conditions.

Publication

All poems entered must be made available for publication in an anthology. This anthology is to be published by the NZPS in November. NZPS has the right of first publication of all poems accepted for the anthology.

Winners consent to the use of their poems for promotional purposes by the NZPS including but not limited to our website, social media and magazine. Copyright in individual poems will remain with the poet, but copyright in any book produced by The New Zealand Poetry Society Inc will remain with the NZPS.
